

C A N T O L

The symbol of a winged creature generally signifies freedom above all else. If there is one creature that is the symbol of freedom it is the Cantol. Their entire civilization revolves around the embodiment of freedom as their Great Mother, Phoenis, provides them the gift of absolute freedom!

Cantol function in many different societal structures but are never bound to their rule; it is all a decision whether they choose to follow or are free. They understand consequences and will face them even if it means facing their demise.

"Bird People, that is what you can call them but they have a deeper energy inside them that makes them unable to bend to a person's will. Go ahead, see what happens when you try to make them do something they won't like..." Zevrihn

If you wonder where your Earth's birds came from; the evolutionary path was set off due to the great Princi, Phoenis. Cantol happen to be the sentient creatures that your birds are descendants of.

Born on The Nest, Cantol are known to travel far and wide throughout Phoenis and even the Planar Unity to seek and discover knowledge. Because of their great freedom, they have the control over their own lives.

Eagelian: The Eagelian are strong and fierce Cantol that enjoy the thrill of the hunt. They believe in absolute freedom and will venture any place where the greatest hunt can be found. Eagelian have a lifespan of 30 - 40 cycles, because of this they seek freedom at a very early age.

Owloe: The Owloe are a proud and strategic Cantol that hold different standards from the others of their race. Their culture revolves around the honor and gift of freedom, almost like a religious practice. However, they too enjoy the hunt, but only in the night. Owloe have a lifespan of 20 - 35 cycles.

Raveni: The Raveni are mysterious and calculating Cantol that love to tell stories of their travels. Their idea of freedom is finding the greatest stories to tell their partner as they tend to have a life partner that they travel alongside. Raveni have a lifespan of 15 - 30 cycles.

As a Cantol, you can have a flying and walking speed while also having a say in what you do! Being a Cantol allows you the freedom to venture anywhere you'd like and face challenges head on!
